JUDGES*

Lew Sims	Interpretation
Billy Ball	Balance & Blend
Norman Hollies	Harmony Accuracy
Dee Paris	Stage Presence
Tom Ward	Arrangement

* All judges are from the District of Columbia Chapter, and most of them have judged all three of our Put Together Quartet Contests. We are grateful to these "involved barber-shoppers" who will travel miles to engage in this demonstration of "preserving and encouraging" barbershop quartet singing.

PUT TOGETHER QUARTET CONTEST*

Friday, June 21, 1974
Oxon Hill Methodist Church

* A "Put Together Quartet" is one formed by the Chapter Quartet Promotion Chairman to encourage quartet singing. In this contest it may include no more than two experienced quartet men (except where they may be required to sing a part other than their usual part) and no more than one member of a registered quartet, and it should contain at least two quartet novices. While the goal was to have no man singing in two quartets, some deviation from this rule has been required, at the last minute, to make it possible for all who wanted to participate to do so. Just one song will be sung; the only other deviation from Official Society Rules is that no time limitation will be observed.

PROGRAM

Les Hesketh, Master of Ceremonies
Immediate Past President, Mid-Atlantic District

1. The Quartet Competition

For the order of singing and personnel of the competitors, see opposite page.

2. The Nova Chords

1973 Semi-Finalists, finishing in 11th place at the International Contest, now polishing their 1974 competition songs and appearing tonight for the Harmonizers and their ladies in one of their last formal appearances on our stage. Let's sit back and relax to the music of "The Harmonizers' own"!

3. The Good Life

Here are Jim Sheehan, Joe Hall, Billy Ball and Bob Campbell (Arlington and District of Columbia Chapters), recently returned from their triumphant tour of England, during which they were joyously received by the unwashed (barbershop-wise) countrymen, who now await with eager anticipation the formation of barbershop quartets like (an impossible dream!) our second featured quartet tonight. Now they are singing in ENGLISH and even, we hear, in cockney! Welcome to the Good Life!!

4. Keep America Singing
