International Quartet Fifth Place Bronze Medalists, First Take, Alex Corson, Anthony Colosimo, Drew Wheaton, Andrew Havens

Comments by The Harmonizer: "The Alexandria Harmonizers...have been the Society's best dancers since at least the Reagan administration and kept the streak going when they enlisted a local tap troupe (17th Street Dance Group of Gay Men's Chorus, Wash DC) in a show-stopping performance of '42nd Street. The vocals were so good that the Harmonizers would have won a strong third place even with the lights turned off."

Celebrating the Alexandria Harmonizers 75th Anniversary

A chance meeting on a rainy night and the power of an idea brings the Alexandria Harmonizers to life on June 29, 1948.

The power of a skilled, creative, and caring membership brings the Alexandria Virginia Chapter to fruition as a respected and emulated world class arts organization.

Over 1,300 members “sing it forward” in a rich legacy landscape that bridges the past and the present with the power of experiences and accomplishments worthy of the Chapter’s Diamond Jubilee.

We continue to look forward and celebrate opportunities that the future holds for us and our community. Our best days are yet to come...for we’ve got a beautiful feeling...everything’s going our way...Oh what a beautiful mornin’...Oh what a beautiful day!

It’s (still) great to be a Harmonizer!

Harmonious Tagline. Composed by Elton John, Lyrics by Tim Rice (edited) – “Circle of Life” “From the day we arrive on the planet...And, blinking, step into the sun...There’s more to see than can ever be seen...More to do than can ever be done...There’s far too much to take in here...More to find than can ever be found...It’s the circle of life...And it moves us all...Through despair and hope...Through faith and love...Till we find our place...On the path unwinding...In the circle...The circle of life.”
